

5 Letters

8 President's Message

The ABA fosters discussion on reasonable, enforceable gun laws and safer streets.

9 Opening Statements

Under cover of copyright law, tattoo artists stake their claims.

10 Online yoga provider's patent application causes a stir in an otherwise tranquil crowd.

11 See the first winner of our cartoon caption contest and the next cartoon calling for your creativity.

12 Short takes and fast facts on the law.

13 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE Internet car companies offer convenience, but lawyers see caution signs.

15 SUPREME COURT REPORT The court ponders whether the president can make appointments while Congress is out.

17 NATIONAL PULSE The First Amendment is at issue in California ban on gay-conversion therapy for minors.

20 Practice

ETHICS Committee calls for caution as more lawyers use group-coupon or prepaid marketing.

22 WORDS Four vignettes add up to one moral about better briefs.

70 Your ABA

Organized crime leaders and terrorists cross paths in cyberspace.

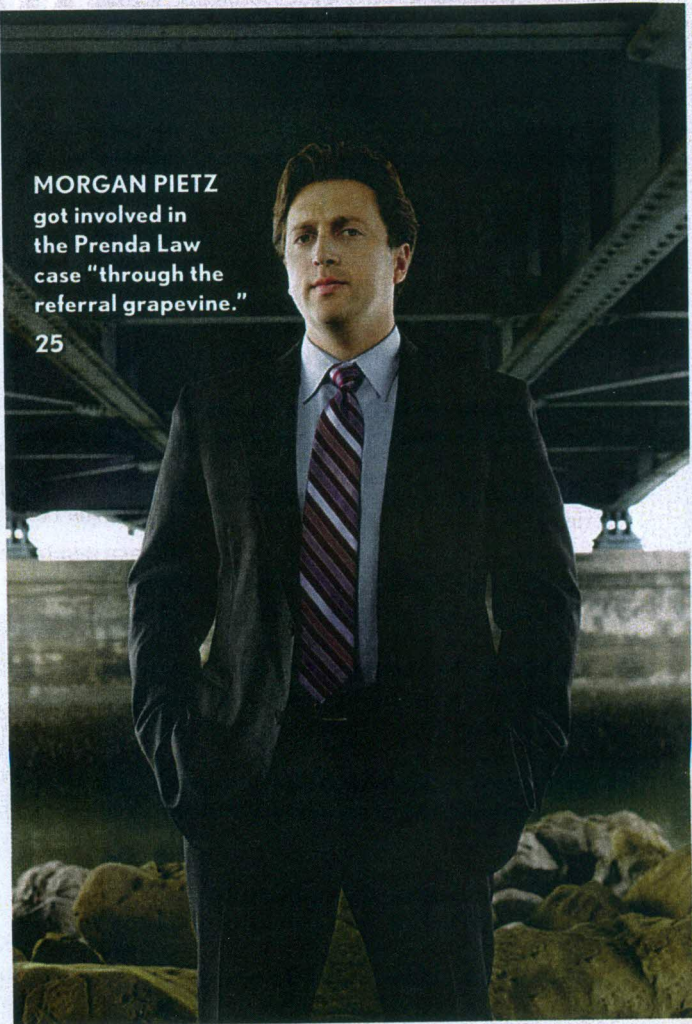

71 ABA backs bipartisan bill supporting permanent families for foster children.

75 Obiter Dicta

A modern marvel brings out the technophobes—and the lawyers.

76 Precedents

President Jimmy Carter pardons Vietnam-era draft dodgers.

MORGAN PIETZ got involved in the Prenda Law case "through the referral grapevine."

25

25 Business of Law

LAW PRACTICE Two California solos tell their tales of taking down "porn troll" Prenda Law.

27 STAFFING New job titles reflect economic challenges, changing career expectations for lawyers.

28 AMBROGIONTECH Two new websites provide a platform for crowdsourced legal research.

29 LAW BY THE NUMBERS While face time holds steady for client communication, digital interactions are gaining favor.

32 KENNEDY ONTECH Recommendations for how to make good on New Year's tech resolutions. / TECH REVIEWS More product picks for lawyers.

34 SOLOS & SMALL FIRMS Keep clients covered by preparing a backup plan for what you least expect.