

ABA JOURNAL

VOL. 100, NO. 10

OCTOBER 2014

BACK HOME

Native South Dakotan Jake Fischer returned to his roots as the first participant in the state's program to recruit attorneys to move to rural areas.

36

FEATURES

36 | Too Many Lawyers? Not Here.

In rural America, lawyers are often few and far between.

By Lorelei Laird

46 | Thou Shalt Not Cheat

The lawyer who took down Lance Armstrong is on a mission to end the culture of cheating.

By Mark Curriden

56 | Probationers' Prison

Privatized supervision becomes a spiral of added fees and jail time.

By Terry Carter

6 Letters

8 President's Message

New commission will help the ABA establish justice for the 21st century.

10 Opening Statements

Preservation efforts are going swimmingly for the DiveBar, an "underwater bar association."

12 Alabama attorney takes a year off to help fight Ugandan land grabs.

13 The PTO seeks to harmonize the global patent system. / An uptick is expected in the use of video evidence as court defense.

14 Short takes and fast facts on the law.

16 Cartoon Caption Contest: Check out last month's winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.

17 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE Latest highway technology speeds up info-gathering, but critics claim it's a privacy violation.

20 NATIONAL PULSE Court rules that lawyers from dissolved firms may now keep clients.

22 SUPREME COURT REPORT What's coming up this term: an inmate's right to wear a beard—and more.

24 Practice

WORDS Ten tips for better legal writing.

26 CRAFTING STORIES Voice and perspective can affect how the law is applied to the facts of your case.

62 Your ABA/Annual Meeting Report

Accreditation standards change after a six-year effort.

63 Study finds new source behind gap in access to justice.

65 Celebrating the Magna Carta's 800th anniversary.

66 Outgoing president speaks out on gun violence.

67 Tech takes the stage at legal hackathon as a tool to improve access to legal assistance.

70 Task force study links stand-your-ground laws to higher homicide rates.

72 Precedents

TV quiz shows come under congressional scrutiny.

CAREER SPA
Co-founder Arthur Bousel's retreats combine creature comforts with one-on-one counseling.

29

29 Business of Law

CAREER COUNSELING Legal coaches host three-day focus on self-rejuvenation and individualized advice.

31 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Survey suggests the jury is still out on alternative fee arrangements.

32 LAW PRACTICE Fewer staff members are taking on larger responsibilities.

33 LAW SCRIBBLER Outside counsel expert and ACES creator Jeffrey Carr is taking a break.

34 KENNEDY ON TECH Display tips for PowerPoint and Keynote presentations.

35 SOLOS AND SMALL FIRMS Webcast site offers platform to share content, drum up new business.