

ABA JOURNAL

VOL. 101, NO. 7

JULY 2015

FEATURES

36 | Zeal Behind the Wheel

Racing cars and lawyering are more similar than might be readily apparent, say several attorney auto-adrenaline aficionados.

By David L. Hudson Jr.

50 | A Thousand Pardons

A clemency project aims to help prisoners doing excessive time springing from the days of inflexible sentencing.

By Lorelei Laird

58 | Stressed Out

How to avoid debilitating anxiety and burnout when your profession is among the most challenging.

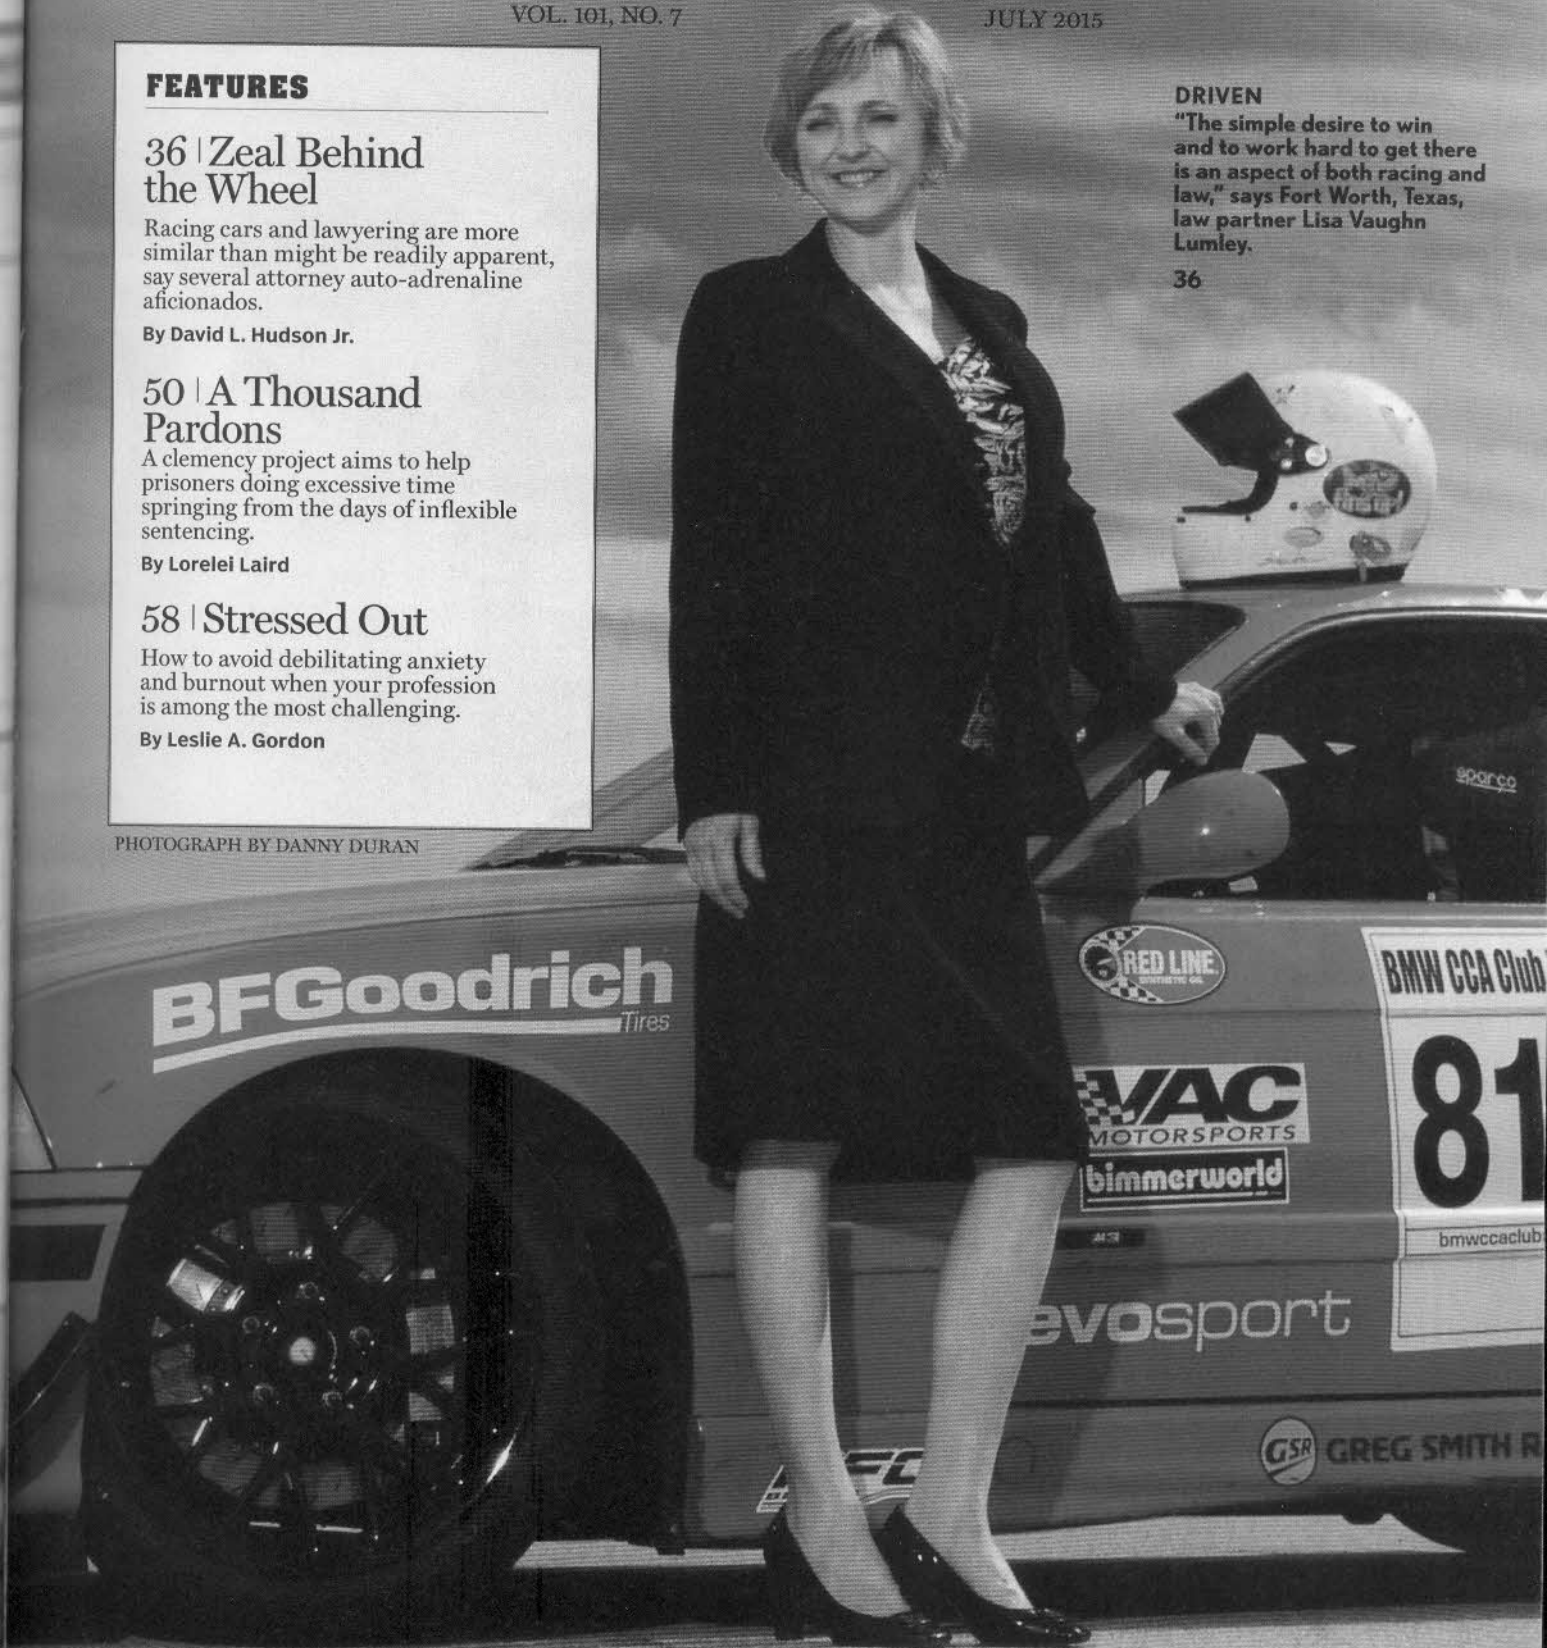

By Leslie A. Gordon

DRIVEN

"The simple desire to win and to work hard to get there is an aspect of both racing and law," says Fort Worth, Texas, law partner Lisa Vaughn Lumley.

36

PHOTOGRAPH BY DANNY DURAN

6 Letters

8 President's Message

The ABA's voice is strengthened by members' efforts.

9 Opening Statements

"The cop" wins jurors' support in a copyright dispute about the songwriting of the Village People.

10 Delaware leads the way in adopting legislation on executors' digital access to deceaseds' accounts.

11 Ten questions for the lawyer working to usher Colorado's all-cash cannabis industry into the federal banking system.

12 Hall and Oates sue a food company over Haulin' Oats granola. / NYC lawyer continues quest to lure readers to case law with the help of zombies, werewolves and more.

13 Cartoon of the month: Check out last month's contest winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.

14 Short takes and fast facts on the law.

15 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE Courts are reconsidering residency restrictions for sex offenders.

17 NATIONAL PULSE Lawyers quarrel over tort liability after the measles outbreak.

19 SUPREME COURT REPORT Judges may not seek campaign cash, but they may express their gratitude.

22 Practice

ETHICS D.C. prosecutors to follow a broader standard for disclosing information to the defense in criminal cases.

24 WORDS Lawmakers should work toward adopting strong, standardized language in criminal statutes.

26 ADVOCACY How to balance the need to make money against the warning buzzers some clients set off.

64 Your ABA

The latest numbers on employment for 2014 law school graduates don't add up to a clear trend.

66 This year's ABA Day lobbying event focused on LSC funding, juvenile justice and sentencing reform.

67 The ABA is fine-tuning its new annual meeting format to make attendance a better experience for members.

72 Precedents

In 1932, the U.S. Army disperses the protesters of the Bonus Expeditionary Force.

BONUS MARCHERS
Veterans thronged to Washington to plea for earlier government relief.
72

29 Business of Law

TECH The ABA Techshow tackled ethics and the skills gap, as well as the latest gadgets.

31 NICHE PRACTICE Sea Shepherd Legal promises a less controversial approach than its TV counterpart.

32 LAW SCRIBBLER A new smartphone app helps attorneys find pinch hitters for court dates.

33 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Verizon report on phishing notes one in 10 are caught in the data theft web.

34 SOLOS/SMALL FIRMS Lawyers weigh independence, resources in deciding on merger proposals.

35 AMBROGI ON TECH Lawyer-referral firm emphasizes compatibility of needs and location.