

A high-angle, black and white illustration of two men in suits walking on a wide staircase. The man in the foreground is walking away from the viewer, while the man in the background is walking towards the viewer. The lighting creates strong shadows on the steps, emphasizing the geometric pattern of the staircase.

ABA JOURNAL

VOL. 101, NO. 3

MARCH 2015

LOST BEARINGS

The pressures of the legal profession can exact a painful toll. Lawyers can lose their way, spiraling into various forms of addiction and odd patterns of behavior—with some even stealing from their own clients.

44

FEATURES

34 | For Sale: LwFrm—GrtDeal

Valuing and selling a law firm takes considerable time—as well as good matchmaker skills.

By Susan A. Berson

44 | Before the Fall

Lawyers who self-medicate to alleviate the stresses of the profession sometimes steal from those they've vowed to protect.

By Stephanie Francis Ward

52 | Telling Tales, Eluding Death

A new approach is changing how capital cases are dealt with in Texas.

By Richard Acello

6 Letters

8 President's Message

ABA Rule of Law Initiative helps advance legal reforms in more than 50 countries.

9 Opening Statements

Police departments are turning to Twitter and Facebook to solicit crime-solving tips.

10 Copyright protections for software code threaten the American tradition of tinkering under the hood.

11 Former Blind Melon guitarist Rogers Stevens has a new gig—in the Philly offices of Ballard Spahr.

12 Alabamans take another turn at reforming the state's archaic and unwieldy constitution.

13 Short takes and fast facts on the law.

14 Cartoon Caption Contest: Check out last month's winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.

15 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE Lawyers are dealing with changing rules concerning sexual assaults on college campuses.

17 NATIONAL PULSE High school fumbles a last-gasp legal play after a referee's blunder costs them a big game.

19 SUPREME COURT REPORT Although the ACA is 1,000 pages long, its future may hinge on a single phrase.

22 Practice

ADVOCACY A Chicago lawyer pieces together a missing couple's story to obtain a court ruling that they died.

24 ETHICS A federal court strikes down Florida Bar restrictions on lawyers citing past results in advertising.

26 ADVOCACY Do your own legwork before putting your trust in a client who may be lying.

60 Your ABA

Task force of the ABA Health Law Section is helping breast cancer patients deal with their legal concerns.

62 ABA section's white paper proposing controls for online piracy makes opponents of Internet regulations see red.

64 Law school enrollment continues to drop, and experts disagree on whether the bottom is in sight.

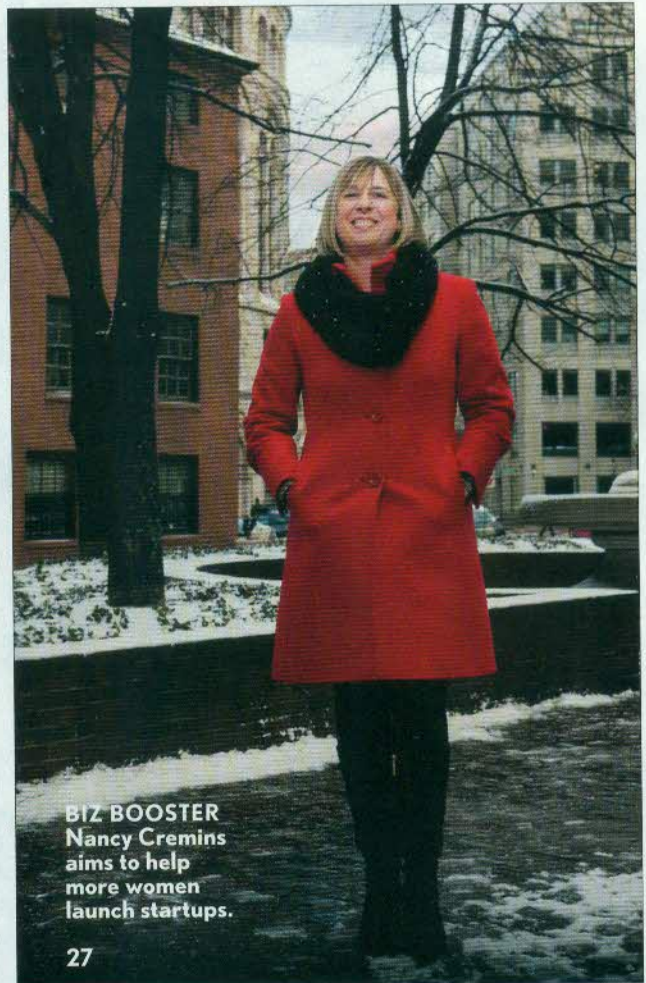

66 Ethics opinion holds that a lawyer selling a practice may assist in the transition of client matters to the purchaser.

71 Obiter Dicta

Satanism is hornin' its way into the national consciousness and challenging traditional religious viewpoints.

72 Precedents

A bomber crashes, and a state secrets doctrine is born.

BIZ BOOSTER
Nancy Cremins aims to help more women launch startups.

27

27 Business of Law

NICHE PRACTICE Boston-based partner teams with marketing exec to form group supporting female entrepreneurs.

29 LEGAL SERVICES Law school clinics pool resources to help battle patent abuse.

30 INTERNATIONAL PRACTICE What's the difference between Hong Kong and Singapore for firms seeking a base in Asia?

31 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Many small law firms face big problems securing clients' payments on a regular basis.

32 MARKETING Glut of best-lawyer lists leaves some wondering whether they're worth the trouble.

33 AMBROGI ON TECH Tax boards turn to online system to resolve property-assessment disputes.