

ABA JOURNAL

VOL. 102, NO. 4

APRIL 2016

ZINA MAKAR

A false police report sent her client to jail for five days. The charges were dismissed, but Makar says she "should have gotten out a lot sooner and shouldn't have had to pay" bail costs she can't recoup.

54

FEATURES

36 | Tech Trekkers

Some law firms travel outside law practice to avoid their "Kodak moment."

By Victor Li

46 | Beyond Imagination

In this age of disruption, few technologies have the potential to transform the legal profession as much as artificial intelligence.

By Julie Sobowale

54 | Bail's Failings

Court systems are rethinking the use of financial bail, which some say penalizes the poor and leads to long-term incarceration.

By Lorelei Laird

6 Letters

8 President's Message

ABA Day 2016 marks 20 years of advocacy and lobbying for justice on Capitol Hill.

9 Opening Statements

Do anonymous social media apps help foster Title IX violations?

10 Synthetic DNA could play a big role in reducing fraud in the art market.

12 Ten questions for a Chicago attorney working in the tech sector after five years as a stay-at-home mom.

13 Cartoon of the month: Check out last month's contest winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.

14 Short takes and fast facts on the law.

15 Docket

NATIONAL PULSE How much privacy are drivers willing to give up for better insurance rates?

17 NATIONAL PULSE Plaintiffs in California asbestos cases feel they're being questioned to death.

19 SUPREME COURT REPORT In the aftermath of Justice Antonin Scalia's death, his colleagues return to work amid uncertainty.

22 Practice

ETHICS High court antitrust ruling involving dentists raises questions about the regulatory structure for lawyers.

24 WORDS Bryan Garner offers an insider's view of Justice Scalia's jurisprudence and recalls their last trip together.

26 STORYTELLING A playwright's jury service experience prompts some practical advice for trial attorneys.

62 Your ABA/Midyear Meeting Report

Proposed amendments to the ethics rule addressing discrimination and harassment get a full hearing.

64 The House of Delegates adopts a resolution to guide states' regulation of nontraditional legal services.

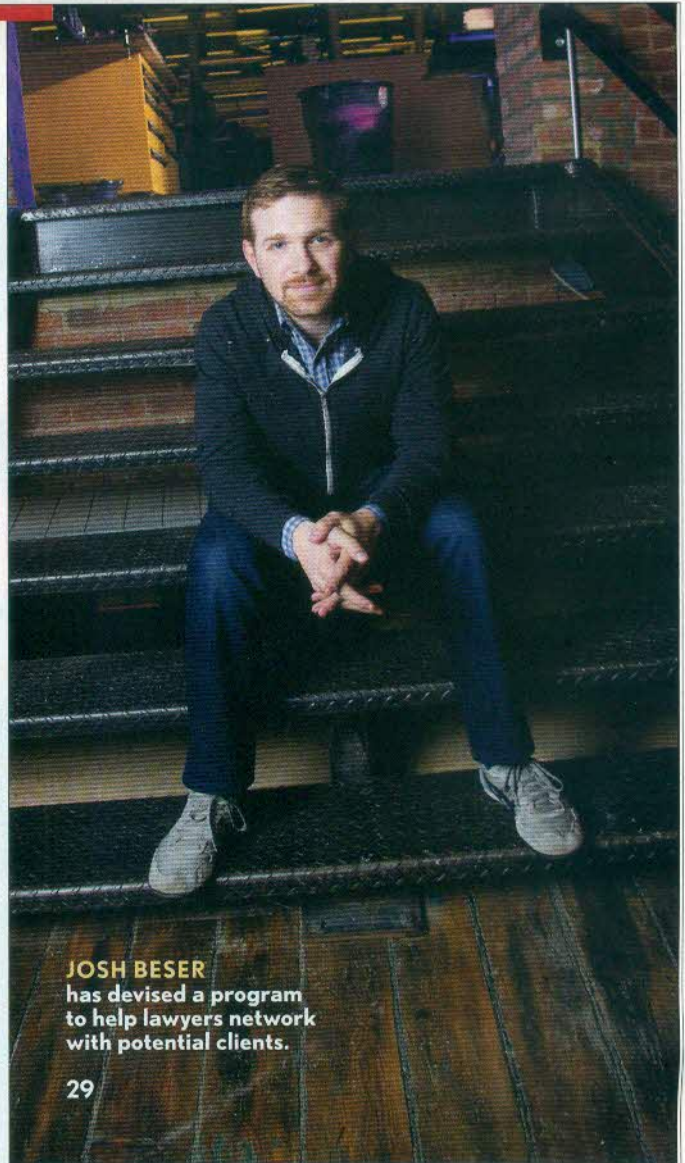

65 Legal scholar identifies forms of common workplace bias and offers ways managers and colleagues can tackle it.

66 Study finds younger lawyers are most at risk of substance abuse and mental health problems.

67 ABA leadership slate reflects the increasing diversity of the wider society.

72 Precedents

Explosions aboard two French-controlled ships on Galveston Bay in 1947 lead to the first class action lawsuit.

JOSH BESER has devised a program to help lawyers network with potential clients.

29

29 Business of Law

NETWORKING The Five Coffee Challenge can help lawyers boost their client base.

30 OFFICES Leaner, more flexible design approaches are gaining favor with law firms.

32 LAW SCRIBBLER Firms are increasing their investment in blogging and content marketing.

33 TECH Voice-responsive digital assistants can complement the work of administrative assistants and help streamline daily tasks.

34 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Is the worst over? Ninety-five percent of 2015 summer associates received job offers, the highest percentage since 1993.

35 BAR EXAM Students at schools offering bar-prep courses are reaping the benefits.