

- 6 Letters
- 8 President's Message
New voting laws can infringe on a critical constitutional right.
- 9 Opening Statements
As more students request emotional support animals on campus, colleges face an array of legal challenges.
- 11 George Washington University Law School may have the first multiuse, all-gender restroom. / The Gen Why Lawyer podcast explores unconventional career paths for young attorneys.
- 13 Ten questions for the Florida assistant state's attorney who passed the bar at the age of 20 and landed her dream job.
- 14 Short takes and fast facts on the law.
- 15 Cartoon of the month: Check out last month's contest winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.
- 16 Supreme fiction: 10 novels to get your mind off the Supreme Court nomination standoff.
- 18 Docket
NATIONAL PULSE Business owners grapple with serving armed customers.
- 20 NATIONAL PULSE Police face constitutional challenges for using cellphone-tracking devices to locate suspects.
- 22 SUPREME COURT REPORT Oyez website finds sponsors to take over its high court audio archives.
- 24 Practice
ETHICS Sharing fees with a lawyer outside the firm passes ethics muster as long as certain rules are followed.
- 26 WORDS The sadistic editor—and the lawyer who survived his wrath.
- 64 Your ABA
Surmounting new challenges has defined a career in law and music for Paula Boggs.
- 67 One law school experiments with accepting the GRE for admissions instead of the LSAT.
- 71 A record number of bar leaders took part in this year's ABA Day lobbying event.
- 72 Precedents
The 14th Amendment is ratified.

- 28 Business of Law
NICHE PRACTICE Ohio defense attorney forms a new practice group to tackle the scourge of heroin addiction.
- 30 LITIGATION FUNDING Third-party financing is booming—and lawyers have gotten in on the trend.
- 31 TECH Legal aid agencies are using webchat to field queries from far-flung places.
- 32 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Data for the class of 2015 shows there are fewer new lawyers and fewer jobs.
- 33 SOLOS/SMALL FIRMS Optical character recognition technology is helping streamline document scanning.