

- 6 Letters
- 8 President's Message
Paulette Brown winds down a year of meeting members, giving back, and advancing diversity and inclusion.
- 9 Opening Statements
Otto Frank is posthumously named co-author of daughter Anne's Diary to extend copyright, benefit foundation.
- 10 Alan Dershowitz's accumulation of Judaica reflects his passion for faith, collecting and clutter.
- 11 Oklahoma ballot measure pits interests of farmers and ranchers against those of animal welfare advocates.
- 12 Ten questions for the civil rights lawyer who is working to ensure that all voters will have access to the ballot box.
- 14 Short takes and fast facts on the law.
- 15 Cartoon of the month: Check out last month's contest winner and try crafting a caption for the current cartoon.
- 16 Docket
NATIONAL PULSE Confusion about and lack of uniformity in the rules of the road for bicyclists lead to clashes.
- 18 NATIONAL PULSE Websites and apps for sharing crime and safety data have become outlets for racial profiling.
- 20 SUPREME COURT REPORT Race-based peremptory juror strikes in a capital murder case are unconstitutional.
- 22 Practice
STORYTELLING The Broadway smash Hamilton teaches lawyers about framing a story.
- 24 ETHICS New Jersey committee says lawyers may advertise superlative rankings that have been verified.
- 26 MINDFULNESS Contemplative practices help equip lawyers to address racism and other ongoing issues.
- 62 Your ABA
Outgoing President Paulette Brown has addressed breaking events while maintaining her focus on key initiatives.
- 64 Annual meeting in San Francisco features a trimmed CLE lineup, tiered pricing and a high-profile keynote speaker.
- 66 Esther Lardent, a key figure in the pro bono legal services movement, is remembered as inspiring others to do good.
- 70 Treasury Department rule on bank account disclosure incorporates ABA confidentiality proposals.
- 71 The feds disqualify the ABA and others from a loan forgiveness program.
- 72 Precedents
Flawed naval intelligence in 1964 leads to increased, prolonged U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

ELECTION PROTECTION
Civil rights attorney Kristen Clarke is working to ensure ballot box access for all voters.

12

- 28 Business of Law
LAW PRACTICE Opposing counsel become mutual admirers, eventually decide to merge firms.
- 30 NEW PRACTICE Prof and students at IP law clinic open affordable law firm catering to startups and small businesses.
- 31 TECHNOLOGY Tech training helps lawyers get up to speed to meet client expectations.
- 32 LAW BY THE NUMBERS Study finds strong tie between search engine visits and new phone calls to firms.
- 33 CYBERSECURITY Experts advise new tactics to fight data breaches.