

Asia Pacific Journal of Environmental Law

Volume 27, Issue 2, 2024

Contents

Editorial

- Compensation for ecological environmental damage in China; proposed legal initiatives for dealing with climate displacement in India; the dual status of rivers in Bangladesh as legal persons and as public trust properties; enforcement of forest regulations on selling status-changed forest land in Türkiye
Ed Couzens and Tim Stephens 161

Articles

- Crafting the legal regime for ecological environmental damage compensation: an analysis of China's approach
Hao Shen 168
- Climate displacement in India: exploring the current legal framework and proposed legal initiatives
Stellina Jolly and Aman Mani Tripathi 185
- The dual status of rivers in Bangladesh as legal persons and public trust properties: the likelihood of legal complexity
Ishrat Jahan 211
- Enforcement of forest regulations on selling forestlands that have lost their forest character in Türkiye: a study of Kızılcahamam district in Ankara province
Adem Şen, Harun Tanrıvermiş, and Md Moynul Ahsan 230