

Asia Pacific Journal of Environmental Law

Volume 26, Issue 2, 2023

Contents

Editorial

- Climate governance in Iran; marine plastic pollution in Vietnam; food waste in Singapore and Japan; gender and transboundary water governance in South Asia; protection of internally displaced people in the Philippines 133
Ed Couzens, Tim Stephens, Katie Woolaston and Cameron Holley

Articles

- Institutional challenges of monocentric climate governance in the legal system of Iran 143
Masoud Faryadi
- Marine pollution management in response to plastic waste under international law and national law – challenges and implications for developing countries:
a case study of Vietnam 162
Nguyen Thi Hong Yen and Nguyen Phuong Dung
- Comparative analysis of food waste laws in Singapore and Japan:
an examination of legal frameworks in hope of achieving Singapore's zero-waste vision 194
Wendy Wong Shih Ling
- Mainstreaming gender in transboundary water governance: a South Asian perspective 221
Stellina Jolly, Shachi Singh and Ashish Saraswat
- Not a slow burn: the urgent need for a protection mechanism for environmentally displaced persons – The Philippines 244
Selina Irene O Ablaza